The Collected Haiku of Christopher Thorsen 2022

To the One within All.

Haiku means playful verse. I write in the Zen Haiku tradition. Each of the poems found here records a unique moment of direct experience in Nature in which the poet disappears into the suchness of what's arising in the now. They were later linked by season into booklets to imagine a day's meander.

First Haiku

Acknowledgments

My thanks to all of you, friends and strangers, who have made this moment possible. My deepest gratitude goes to the women in my life, especially Lady Susan, Lady Roo, and my daughters, Willow and Amber, as well as to my mentor and friend, JW Hackett, who showed me the Way of Haiku.

*For thirty years I have been in search of the Swordsman;
Many a time I have watched
the leaves decay and the branches shoot;
Ever since I saw for once
the peaches in bloom,
Not a shadow of a doubt
do I cherish.*
